Notes from the District Administrator

The first part of our school year has gone by so quickly. Fall activities were successful and we are so proud of our varsity football team for earning the title of Conference Champs. Parent/Teacher conferences went well with a respectable turnout and we are now well into our 2nd quarter of teaching and learning.

This time of year we enter into the holiday season and reflect on the many things for which we are thankful. We are thankful for our students who come to school prepared and ready to learn as they give us a daily reminder of what is important and our purpose. We are thankful for parents who support their children's education and our school. We are thankful for all our staff members and board members who work diligently to provide the best educational opportunities for our students, and who really care about all students having their best interests at heart. We are also so thankful for our volunteers who enthusiastically contribute so much to our school.

Each day I feel more connected to our AB School District family. I'm so thankful to be part of such a wonderful school community. I continually see dedicated, tireless individuals going above and beyond to make sure excellence takes place to support our students academically, physically, socially and emotionally. All these people do make a difference and our students benefit from these efforts.

We are thankful for parents who put their faith in us. They continue to share their precious children with us and work hard to advocate for them in partnership with us. For this, we are ever so grateful.

I wish all of you and your families a happy, safe, healthy, and relaxing holiday season!

PreK-12 Principal Message

Educating the Whole Child By: Jeff Rykal, PreK-12 Principal

Educating our children can be a very complex task at times. Our world is changing at an ever increasing pace, which places additional stresses on all our lives. That stress is brought to school by our students, as well as staff, on a daily basis. We must be cognizant of our abilities and strategies for shedding this stress so that we can focus on guiding our students towards being fine young adults before they head off into the world. For our society to be successful at this most important task, we need to consider the needs of each child. We need to educate the whole child.

What do we mean by the whole child? There is much that we must take in consideration to make sure that students are ready to learn. Maslow's hierarchy of needs, pictured to the left, is one of the best summaries of what schools need to address on a daily basis.

Basic needs must be addressed on a daily basis. A hungry child has difficulty focusing. The school breakfast and lunch program is necessary to make sure this need is met. Our building atmosphere must be comfortable, inviting, and a place where students, teachers, and community members feel safe.

Once basic needs are met we can focus on the social and emotional needs of our students. Friendships and a sense of belonging are so very important for every child. The children of Almond-Bancroft often hear me refer to our school community as a family. Just like at your Thanksgiving dinner, if family members get into an argument, harm is done, and it must be repaired/mended. Almond-Bancroft is a family and we focus on maintaining positive relationships with all family members. Can we be dysfunctional at times? Sure - what family isn't? When that happens, we do our very best to mend the relationships. When students don't feel that they belong and are cared about, they struggle to find their self-worth, and we see a downslide in their ability to be successful in the classroom.

Ultimately, as educators and parents, we want to see our students become self-actualized, creating their own personal goals for growth. We want them ready to leave the nest and take on the world. Does every child make it there before graduation - not necessarily. We all know (or were) that kid that lives in Mom and Dad's basement until they find their path in life.

Academic achievement is vitally important, however it is only a small part of what makes up teaching and learning. When we forget to consider the basic needs and/or the social/emotional needs of the children we work

Reading Nook

Scholastic Book Fair

The Annual Almond-Bancroft Scholastic Book Fair officially closed on Friday, November 15th. The Fair gave students and their families an opportunity to add to their home libraries and increase excitement for reading. Our total sales this year were $3729.00, which helped our school earn $1945.77 for book replacement for those well-loved books, to build classroom libraries, and for our birthday book program. Thank you for supporting reading!

We had a great book fair because of our dedicated volunteers. Their efforts helped motivate students to read more! Volunteers helped set up the fair, advertise the fair, restock books, kept the space clean, and worked the register. Thank you to Stephanie Reyes, Annie Russell-Dernbach, Kathy Miner, Jeff Rykal, Susie Sandow, Bonnie Warzynski, Michele Budilier, Tom Collins, Craig Nigh, Brian Barden, Marcey Lehman, our social-media coordinator-Sarah, Amy Carlton, Michael Seymour, Denise Upton, Ellie Chapa, Trina Warzynski, Evan Ramczyk, and Megan Bentley for helping to make this event possible. Of course, I'd like to also thank the parents and teachers who supported the fair by purchasing items!

DAWN BARBER, K-12 COUNSELOR (715) 366-2941 EXT. 414

Elementary Classroom Guidance

Students in Mrs. Barber's guidance classes have been continuing to explore their own identity through self-awareness activities. In addition to learning some new positive character traits, we have been expanding our emotional vocabulary and learning how our thoughts, feelings and moods affect our mental health. Identifying our emotional triggers is pretty simple. But thinking about the strategies we can use when we feel "triggered" takes some thought. Once we have some strategies, we need to put them into practice when we feel those

6-12 Academic, Career, and Personal/Social Lessons

As part of our Comprehensive School Counseling Program, our 6-12 students engage in various activities during home room each day. Students work in small groups with one of their class advisors on programming and activities related to academic and career planning and character education. All 6-12 students participate in restorative circle discussions, which continue to build their interpersonal skills.

Staff Sergeant Jeffery Feyen recently spoke to our Sophomores about the importance of setting goals and he will meet with other classes as well on self-motivation and planning for the future. Although Staff Sgt. Feyen currently serves as a U.S. Army recruiter out of Plover, he has been sharing his knowledge with us on a variety of topics and is enthusiastic about seeing our students succeed in whatever they choose to do beyond high school.

FINANCIAL AID FOR COLLEGE—IT'S FAFSA SEASON!

The application window for Federal Student Aid is open now until June 30, 2020. The results of your FAFSA application helps colleges determine how much aid your child is eligible to receive. Parent and student each need to create a FAFSA ID to complete the application at <https://studentaid.gov/sa/fafsa>. Watch: How to fill out the FAFSA in 10 Steps at <https://youtu.be/kiJrJ3d-vHU>

Scholarships are being added to my school web page as I receive them, so please check back often. Has your student completed a "brag sheet" yet? They were assigned in ACP homeroom and are helpful to staff who will be writing letters of recommendation for your child.

Congratulations on your successes! The following information will help you plan for your senior portraits and ensure that the photo in your child's yearbook will be treasured. You may submit a photo taken by a professional photographer of your choice, as long as your submitted photo meets deadline, aesthetic and technical specifications. It isn't too soon to schedule your senior portrait sitting with your favorite photographer.

The purpose of the senior photo policy is to promote clarity and recognition of students and to discourage controversial submissions.

The photo must be a head and shoulders shot of the student (from the waist up is acceptable). No profiles please (both eyes of the senior should be visible).

The photo should be submitted without any writing on it (the name of the photographer's studio, etc.).

The staff designs the book for portrait pictures only (landscape photos will be cropped).

The photo must not have an all-white or all-black background, as these photos often look like "cut-outs"

The photo must not contain props, pets, or persons other than the senior (props include vehicles, sports equipment, instruments, etc.). Pictures taken in a natural environment look best.

Students in the photo must follow the school dress code. Although it is usually Summer when photos are taken, students must have their bodies adequately covered. No cleavage. No hats. No inappropriate logos on t-shirts.

Due to copyright laws, your photographer must submit a senior portrait to the yearbook staff and grant his/her permission for the yearbook staff to publish the photograph. The best way to do this is to have the photographer send an e-mail to Mrs. Rykal which releases the photograph for publication in the Almond-Bancroft Yearbook with the photo attached. Photographers should note that these photos are also used for the senior video at the graduation ceremony and submitted to the Waushara Argus Paper and the Stevens Point Journal.

If you will not be using a professional photographer to take your senior's photo, the student may ask Mrs. Rykal to take a quality photograph of him/her in a local indoor or outdoor setting. You may also submit an unprofessional photo as long as the picture is well focused and has a high resolution. If no picture is submitted, the school photo will be utilized.

Enjoy the upcoming, fast-paced year with your senior! Thank you for your cooperation and feel free to contact Mrs. Rykal if you have any questions.

Youth Wrestling

Once again, I will be offering Youth Wrestling for K-5th grades. Practices will start Monday, January 6th at 5:15 PM in the school cafeteria. For any wrestler that may be considering wrestling at earlier tournaments, (Westfield, Sunday, December 29th and Mosinee, Sunday, January 5th) I will offer practices starting Monday, December 9th at 5:15 PM. A complete schedule will be handed out on the first day of each of the practices. Practices generally run Monday and Tuesdays from 5:15-6:30 PM and Thursday practices will be offered prior to scheduled weekend tournaments.

In the past, I've noticed that the more adults we have working with kids during practice, the easier it is for them to learn and stay focused. With that being said, I ask that all Kindergarten and 1st grade wrestlers have a family member available at practices. Any additional help families are willing and able to provide would be greatly appreciated.

New for this year, we have actual team uniforms. I currently have wrestling warm up shorts and singlets and will be ordering hooded warm-up tops. Uniforms will be handed out on Thursdays prior to tournaments and are requested to be returned the following week. I ask that parents consider buying wrestling shoes and headgear for your wrestler but neither are required for competition.

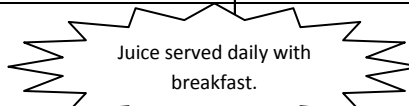

Sign-up forms will be available from students' classroom teachers starting in early December. You can also check out our youth wrestling Facebook page by searching "Almond Bancroft Youth Wrestling" to get more information about the upcoming season.

Please feel free to email me with your questions at: wwagner@abschools.k12.wi.us or call 715-366-2941 ext.333.
